Currently, the company is collecting essential items to benefit an orphanage thrift store that serves 29 children, many of whom have been rescued from dangerous situations, including sex trafficking cartel rings.

Children in Orphanage are without proper sleeping arrangements. 3 Birds Bioremediation is gathering these items while also saving funds for their upcoming Christmas drive, which aims to bring holiday joy to these kids by providing items such as toothbrushes, pajamas, and much-needed care and hygiene items for children aged infant to teen.

Urgent Needs Include:

Basic hygiene items like toothbrushes, toothpaste, deodorant, and sanitary napkins.

Bulk food items such as breakfast cereal, formula (Nido), diapers of all sizes, and essential pantry staples like rice, beans, pasta, and peanut butter.

"We've always believed that our role in the community is not just about biohazard cleanup—it's about cleaning up lives," said Karen Lewis, owner of 3 Birds Bioremediation. "These children deserve to feel safe, cared for, and loved, and we hope the community will come together to make sure they have the essentials they need, especially with the holiday season approaching."

How You Can Help: Donations of physical goods can be picked up by the 3 Birds Bioremediation team throughout the Houston and Austin metro areas.
