FORT LAUDERDALE, FL, UNITED STATES, September 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/

-- Thomas Homes, a leading general contractor in Fort Lauderdale, is excited to announce a unique opportunity for waterfront homeowners in Broward County. Specializing in the high-end South Florida real estate market, Thomas Homes is offering homeowners the chance to sell their properties as new construction spec homes based on plans, without the need to pay sales commissions or invest in repairs. Additionally, homeowners may receive a share of the profits from the new construction contract price.

This innovative offer is designed to cater to the needs of homeowners looking to maximize the value of their waterfront properties without the usual hassles associated with selling a home. By partnering with Thomas Homes, homeowners can benefit from the expertise of South Florida intercostal home builders, ensuring their properties are transformed into desirable new construction homes.

Robby Thomas, President of Thomas Homes, stated, "This offer is a game-changer for waterfront homeowners in Fort Lauderdale. It provides a seamless and profitable way to sell their homes, leveraging the expertise of South Florida intercostal custom home builders."
