

Entrepreneurs Now Applying for UPG Biashara Class of 2025: Cash Grants, Free Training, Global Network and Exposure

Applications Open for Class of 2025. UPG Biashara is an initiative that supports entrepreneurs in their journey to turn ideas into businesses.

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, November 12, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Entrepreneurs from around the world are submitting their applications for the UPG Biashara Class of 2025, an opportunity that offers cash grants, free business training, international visibility, a global network and more.

UPG Biashara is an initiative that supports entrepreneurs in their journey to turn ideas into businesses. This includes the possibility to win cash grants ranging from USD 5,000 to USD 20,000. The deadline to apply for the next class is 31 December 2024.

This unique program is designed with the belief that entrepreneurs deserve comprehensive support to maximize their success. Entrepreneurs who secure a place in the program by showcasing their ideas and passion will receive this support at no cost. The initiative includes two key phases: the Learning Journey and the Action Journey. Cash grants are awarded during the Action Journey, supported by several grant programs such as the Diamonds Do Good® Entrepreneurship Grant. To apply, visit: UPG Biashara.

Key highlights of the program include cash grants for selected entrepreneurs across various sectors, with amounts ranging from USD 5,000 to USD 20,000. Previous winners have come from diverse countries including India, Canada, Nigeria, Botswana, Lesotho, Sierra Leone, South Africa, Tanzania, Namibia. Another standout feature is the focus on "pitching," where participants have numerous opportunities to refine their business presentations. In 2024, the Learning Journey
