LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, September 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Get ready for a hysterical ride as AMC Theaters proudly announces the release of "Holy Cash," the latest comedy feature from award-winning actor and comedian Paul Rodriguez. This uproarious film centers on two ex-cons who, faced with the choice of returning to prison, opt instead to become televangelists, launching a new scheme to con unsuspecting viewers out of their hard-earned money.

"Holy Cash" boasts an impressive ensemble cast, featuring the comedic talents of Jay Mohr, Luis Guzman, Danny Trejo, Emilio Rivera, Catherine Bach, Aries Spears, Stephanie Gerard, Alicia Machado, Gabriela Vergara, Gary Busey, and Tony Plana.

A powerful lineup of stand-up comedians supports Paul's movie, including Felipe Esparza, Carlos Mencia, Jerry Garcia, Gene Pompa, Willie Barcena, Pablo Francisco, and Frankie Quinones, all bringing their unique flair to this outrageous tale of faith gone wrong.

The movie's soundtrack features the legendary Little Willie G from the Grammy-honored band "Thee Midnitters," performing a tribute to Trini Lopez.

Directed and written by Paul Rodriguez, the film is crafted from an original idea by Rodriguez. The project is produced by Rafael Loza, Hector Kron, Nelson Saenz, Mel Garcia, Angeles Prado, and Rodriguez, alongside Alfredo Widman, ensuring a top-tier production that promises to deliver both laughs and sharp social commentary.

"I'm thrilled to share this story with audiences," said Paul Rodriguez. "It's a fun take on the lengths some people will go to for a quick buck, and I hope it resonates with everyone who's ever been a little too trusting."

PAUL RODRIGUEZ Strikes Back In "Holy Cash"
