Bay Area Phoenix Ready for FIBA WBLA

OAKLAND, CA, UNITED STATES,

September 10, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- The Bay Area Phoenix are thrilled to announce their participation in the prestigious FIBA Women's Basketball League Americas (WBLA) tournament this month in Medellin, Colombia. This marks a historic moment for both the team and women's basketball in the Bay Area, as the Phoenix prepare to showcase their talents on one of the sport's largest international stages.

The Bay Area Phoenix have been selected to participate in this years FIBA WBL Americas Tournament

Head Coach Bryan Gardere expressed his excitement ahead of the tournament, saying, "We are thrilled to announce that our team will be competing in the prestigious FIBA WBL Americas tournament. This opportunity marks a significant milestone for us and for women's basketball in the Bay Area. The journey to this point has been both enjoyable and educational. Our roster boasts a wealth of experience, with players who have excelled in FIBA, WNBA, WPBA, and college basketball. While we've had limited preparation time, we are confident that our team's talent and determination will enable us to be highly competitive and achieve a strong performance."
