Phylicia's narrative in Unstoppable! Volume 4 is a powerful testament to the impact of compassionate and informed parenting. By sharing her experiences, Phylcia aims to provide mothers with the tools they need to connect more deeply with their children, fostering a sense of understanding and emotional intelligence that benefits the entire family.

"Exciting. This is a new adventure for me," she said about becoming a best-selling author. "I've never put my name out there in something big like this. It's thrilling to think that my story could inspire and empower other mothers to build stronger relationships with their children."

As a Parent Coach, Phylcia Dunaway offers a unique approach to parenting that focuses on understanding the individual needs of each child. Her coaching program helps mothers tailor their parenting styles to meet the specific needs of their children, ensuring that each child feels loved, supported, and understood.

"Parenting is not a one-size-fits-all approach," she explains. "My coaching program helps mothers understand their children better and adapt their parenting style to parent the children they have, not the children they wish they had. It's about making sure that children are getting what they need to feel loved and supported in their own way."

Phylicia's mission is to inspire mothers to take action, even when circumstances aren't perfect. She believes that by following their dreams and trusting in their abilities, women can create positive change in their families and communities.

"I want women to understand that they don't have to wait for the perfect time to do what they want," Phylcia states. "Just do it, and everything will come together as it's supposed to. Follow your dreams, and don't let anyone bring you down. You know what you are capable of. Believe in yourself."

Phylicia's advice to women who want to become unstoppable is to stay true to their dreams and not seek validation from others.
