PERRYSBURG, OH, UNITED STATES, September 11, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Alana C. Marks is

One night, I created a new character named Natasha, who discovered something intriguing in a cave. From there, the story grew into a narrative that captivated my children for an entire summer.”

Alana C. Marks

thrilled to announce that her highly anticipated debut novel, Greater Love, is now available for presale. As the first book in the Unbroken Bones trilogy, Greater Love masterfully blends fantasy and allegory, taking readers on a journey through hidden mysteries and profound truths about life, love, and redemption.

The Unbroken Bones trilogy challenges the widely held belief that giant bones are merely a hoax, presenting a compelling narrative that explores the reasons why both men and fallen angels might want these bones to remain hidden. It invites readers to consider new possibilities and question the reality of these ancient mysteries.

At the heart of the story is Natasha, who uncovers a mysterious map in her grandmother's Bible, revealing a family secret of incalculable proportions. Alongside her is John, a college student eager to leave behind his troubled home life. As their paths intertwine, they are drawn into a web of unexpected adventures and revelations that will change their lives forever.

Marks originally crafted the story as a series of bedtime tales for her children, who eagerly anticipated each new chapter. “My kids were story-holics,” she explains. “One night, I created a new character named Natasha, who discovered something intriguing in a cave. From there, the story grew into a narrative that captivated my children for an entire summer.”

Alana C. Marks is passionate about infusing her writing with biblical principles. She loves the challenge of creating stories that are not just riveting but also relatable, encouraging readers to contemplate spiritual things. Redemption and restoration are themes woven throughout her novels, and she hopes those who read her books will be strengthened and inspired by the light of God's eternal love.

Unbroken Bones: Greater Love is now available for presale on Amazon! Reserve your copy today. For more information about Alana C. Marks and her upcoming book, please visit www.alanacmarks.com.
