BrickHouse Ceramic Art Center in Long Island City will open its doors to the public Dec 13-15 to showcase over 40 ceramic artists from all over New York for its 15th Annual Holiday Craft Show. They will be presenting their best handmade pottery for sale at affordable prices for all the art and design lovers on your holiday gift list.

Opening reception will be held Friday night, December 13th.

While BrickHouse maintains a selection of artists' work in their foyer gallery shop year-round, during the holidays the 4,000 square foot studio transforms into an exhibition of world class pottery made in an array of styles and techniques. Artists participating range in aesthetic and experience, some boasting over 40 years of practicing the craft. Each will be hosting their own
