During a warm and personal conversation, Michael J. Gopin presented a check to Carmen Estrada, the Executive Director of The Mustard Seed Café. The donation will support the café's mission of providing nutritious meals to everyone in the community, fostering a spirit of inclusivity and generosity. The Mustard Seed Café offering free lunches every Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, ensures that all members of the community have access to healthy, delicious food without the need for payment, creating a welcoming and supportive environment for all.

We are honored to support such a meaningful cause that aligns with our commitment to giving back to the El Paso community.”

“The work that The Mustard Seed Café does is truly inspiring,” said Michael J. Gopin. “It’s not just about providing food, but about creating a space where everyone feels valued and part of a community. We are honored to support such a meaningful cause that aligns with our commitment to giving back to the El Paso community.”

The Mustard Seed Café has become a cornerstone of the El Paso community, offering more than just meals. It provides a welcoming environment where people can come together, share stories, and support one another. The café’s focus on using fresh, locally sourced ingredients not only promotes healthy eating but also supports local farmers and food producers. Additionally, the café grows its own crops, ensuring that the meals served are as fresh and nutritious as possible while reinforcing the café’s commitment to sustainability and self-reliance.

The “Giving with Gopin” initiative has been a testament to the Law Offices of Michael J. Gopin's dedication to supporting local organizations that make a difference in the lives of El Paso residents. The Law Offices of Michael J. Gopin selects nonprofits to receive financial support, aiming to highlight and assist those who are doing vital work in the community.
