

Sarantos Releases Emotionally Charged New Single and Video: 'I'm Sorry This Is the Life I Gave You'

Deeply Personal Rock Ballad Offers Raw Apology and Reflection

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, September 10, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sarantos, the prolific singer-songwriter known for his emotional transparency and eclectic style, releases his powerful new single and music video, "I'm Sorry This Is the Life I Gave You," today. This deeply personal rock ballad captures Sarantos' introspective journey of regret, vulnerability, and self-reflection.

In "I'm Sorry This Is the Life I Gave You," Sarantos bares his soul, addressing the feelings of inadequacy and failure that haunt him. In a candid statement, Sarantos shared the inspiration behind the song:

"My therapist says I try to be everything to everybody. It's true. I do. But most of the time, I feel like I'm a failure and nothing to everybody. So I wrote this song about how I usually feel—like I haven't given the people around me and the ones I love the most everything I should have given them. And for that, I'm sorry. I made this music video as a way to apologize to everybody I've let down."

Raw Emotion Captured in the Music Video

The accompanying music video is a visual extension of the song's emotional core. Sarantos explains:

"At first, it was kind of like noise, then it started to have a story, and then the story started to make sense." The video draws viewers into the depth of his sorrow, regret, and search for understanding, adding a profound layer to the song's narrative.
