

Emmy-Award Winning Film Festival Favorite - NOT ON THIS NIGHT - Now Available on Major VOD Streaming Platforms

Unique and Thoughtful Stage Adaptation Inspired by actual events of Christmas 1944

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, September 17, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Winner of two Emmy Awards,* a nominee of seven, Random Media and StageWright

Films are proud to announce director Bill Humphreys' moving dramatic screen adaptation of Evelyn Jones' celebrated stage play, Not On This Night, is now available on major streaming VOD platforms. Judith

Feingold stars as Jacqueline Brulet in the touching

Christmas eve story inspired by actual events of December 1944. Not On This Night centers on a chance encounter between enemy combatants in a small farmhouse, the home of a young French woman,

Jacqueline Broulet, in the Ardennes Forest on Christmas

Eve. As the Battle of the Bulge rages on around her,

Jacqueline unexpectedly finds herself sheltering and tending to two young, wounded soldiers, one American,

Eddie Miller, and one German, Reinhold Shultz, who have been lost in the woods after being separated from their units. As the night passes, enemies see themselves as human beings. Can humanity prevail, even in the bloody, wretched depths of war?
