IMPACT AWARD

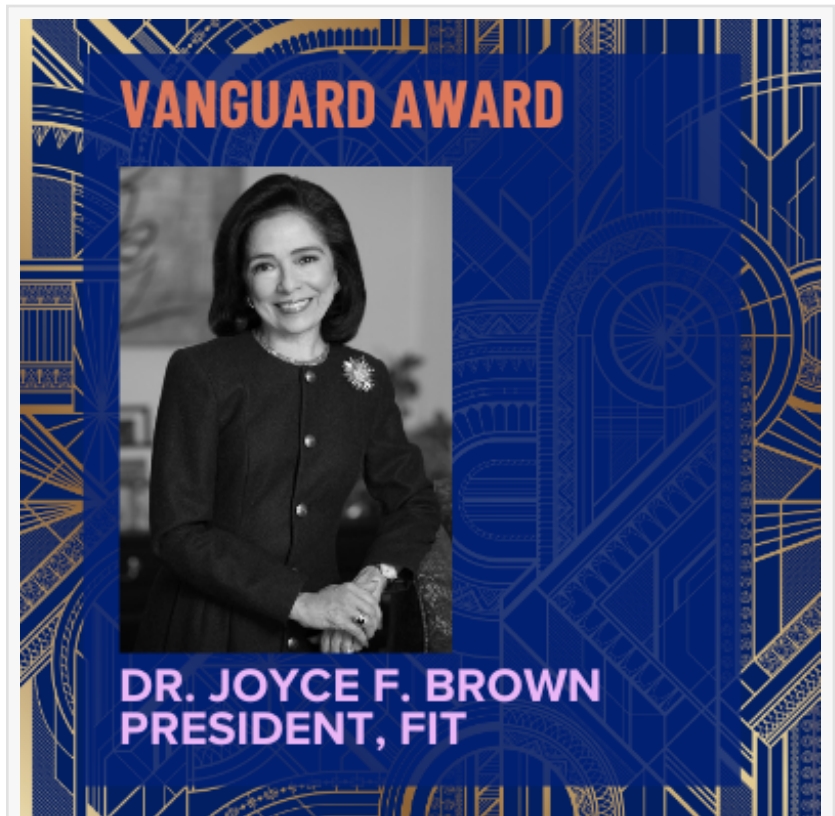

Brieane Olsen
CEO, PacSun

This year, Delivering Good will also present its first Luminary Special Recognition to John Pomerantz, Retired Chairman of the Board of The Leslie Fay Companies. The Luminary special recognition honors an individual or organization whose visionary leadership and extraordinary contributions have significantly illuminated the path for others in their field.

With the gala, Delivering Good will launch its “Small Comforts, Big Impact” campaign, aiming to unite the fashion industry in providing Basic Comforts Packs— a critical resource in disaster recovery.

“We’re providing more than just clothing; we’re offering a starting point - a foundation of hope, dignity, and opportunity for those facing the aftermath of tragedy. These packs go beyond providing essential items - they serve as a starting point for individuals and families to rebuild their lives,” said Matthew Fasciano, the CEO of Delivering Good.

Fasciano will co-emcee the evening alongside Daiane Sodre, Ambassador of Delivering Good. The event will include a cocktail reception, followed by a dinner program and recognition of the honorees. A lively auction will also take place, with all funds raised
