

Purpose Healing Center Celebrates its Accessible Alcohol and Drug Rehab Services for Mesa and the Phoenix Valley

Purpose Healing Center expands drug rehab services in Mesa, offering proven care from detox to outpatient. AHCCCS accepted. Serving all Arizona communities.

MESA, AZ, UNITED STATES, September 12, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Purpose Healing Center, a leading addiction treatment provider in Phoenix and Scottsdale, Arizona, announced today an expansion of its comprehensive drug rehab programs serving Mesa and surrounding communities. Their centers offer a full continuum of care, from medical detox to inpatient rehabilitation and outpatient services, to support individuals struggling with substance abuse and co-occurring mental health disorders.

"We're committed to providing accessible, high-quality addiction treatment to those in need across the Phoenix metropolitan area," said a spokesperson for Purpose Healing Center. "Our services for Mesa residents allow us to reach more individuals and families impacted by addiction, offering them hope and a path to lasting recovery."

The Joint Commission-accredited facility now provides enhanced access to its evidence-based treatment programs for residents of Mesa seeking drug rehab services. Purpose Healing Center's comprehensive approach includes:

- Medically-supervised detoxification
- Residential inpatient treatment
- Partial Hospitalization Program (PHP)
- Intensive Outpatient Program (IOP)

These programs utilize a combination of individual therapy, group counseling, medication management, and holistic approaches to address the complex nature of addiction and support long-term recovery.

In addition to expanding services in Mesa, Purpose Healing Center has increased accessibility for residents in Cave Creek. The center's spokesperson explained, "We recognize the unique needs of our Arizona communities and have tailored our outreach and transportation options to ensure access to our Scottsdale facility for both inpatient and outpatient care."

spokesperson noted. The center's range of programs ensures that Gilbert residents can receive appropriate levels of care based on their individual needs and circumstances.

A key aspect of Purpose Healing Center's mission is to make treatment accessible to all who need it. The facility proudly accepts most forms of AHCCCS (Arizona Health Care Cost Containment System) insurance, ensuring that state-funded healthcare options can cover treatment costs. Additionally, the center is in-network with numerous private insurance providers, further expanding affordability options for patients.

"By accepting AHCCCS and partnering with major insurance providers, we're removing financial barriers to treatment. Our goal is to ensure that anyone seeking help for addiction in Mesa, Cave Creek, Gilbert, Queen Creek, and beyond can access the care they need without delay," the spokesperson emphasized.

For those in Queen Creek and across AZ seeking effective treatment for drinking and drug abuse, as well as for dual-diagnosis clients, Purpose Healing Center has developed specialized support services. "We understand the challenges faced by individuals in Queen Creek who may feel isolated from treatment resources. Our expanded outreach and flexible scheduling for outpatient programs aim to bridge this gap and provide the support needed for recovery," stated the center's spokesperson.

Purpose Healing Center continues to be a beacon of hope for those battling addiction across Arizona. With its expanded services and commitment to accessibility, the center stands ready to support individuals and families on their journey to recovery.
