LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, September 12, 2024 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Bonfit America Inc., a creator, producer, and supplier of distinctive products, is pleased to announce the availability of its new product, Play Nine, The Card Game of Golf, which is designed for travel. This game can now be found across the United States in Target Stores and on Target.com.

Play Nine is a golf-themed card game ideal for casual game nights. Much like a golf swing, it combines chance with strategy, providing hours of entertainment for your group. The objective is to draw, flip, and discard cards to achieve the lowest score.

By blending strategy with the luck of the draw, players aim to match cards, lower their scores, and win the hole. Each round represents a Hole, with the game playable for up to nine Holes.

“Target has brought in the newly designed Play Nine for fall and pre-holiday sales. We’re thrilled to ship in early to accommodate this important timing and season,” said Bonfit President Paul Krok. “Additionally, Target has strategically placed Play Nine in their games section.”
