About Wags & Walks:

Wags & Walks is a 501(c)(3) rescue organization based in Los Angeles that has rescued over 13,000 dogs in need. The organization is a community of dog lovers working to promote shelter dogs as the best dogs in the world through advocacy. Their mission is to save family-friendly dogs from high-kill shelters and place them in loving forever homes within the community. The female-founded organization credits its success to the help of countless volunteers, fosters, and generous donors who have opened their hearts and homes to help rescue dogs in need.

At the helm of it all is Founder and Chief Animal Lover, Lesley Brog, who launched the organization independently after falling in love with her first rescue dog over a decade ago. Today, Wags and Walks' success has gained the support of celebrity advocates like Sir Patrick Stewart, Max Greenfield, Jen Atkin, Lauren Conrad, and many others. Most recently, Wags & Walks expanded their paw print with the 2019 launch of their Nashville chapter and opened their state-of-the-art center in 2023.
