BANGALORE, KARNATAKA, INDIA, September 12, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- IDS Next is excited to announce the opening of its new headquarters at Manyata Tech Park, Bangalore, the city's largest integrated township. With the relocation to one of Bangalore's premium technology parks, this state-of-the-art facility marks a significant milestone in the company's journey of growth. The office offers a dynamic workspace designed to enhance both customer experiences and employee well-being.

“

This facility embodies our vision of innovation, collaboration, and excellence, and we invite everyone to visit and see firsthand how IDS Next is redefining the future of hospitality.”

Binu Mathews

Our new head office is equipped with the latest facilities, including audio-visual setups. It offers an enhanced experience to our customers and partners who visit us, allowing them to explore our product offerings firsthand and engage with our team of experts.

In addition to customer-centric advancements, the headquarters is thoughtfully designed to create an ideal, holistic workspace for our employees. Ergonomic facilities have been incorporated throughout, prioritising comfort and productivity, and fostering a sense of well-being among our team members.

Also significant is how the inauguration of the new head office happened in parallel to IDS Next, which is celebrating 37 years in the industry.

The new headquarters represents a significant step forward in IDS Next's commitment to both its customers and our employees. As one of the largest technology providers in the region, innovation has been a core value for the company. With the opening of the new office in Manyata Technology Park, IDS Next lives by that value, promising only the best amenities to its customers, partners and employees.
