

Wells Gray Country Welcomes September with National Disc Golf Tournament and Stunning Fall Landscapes

September and October are a great time to visit Wells Gray for those wanting to experience the region's natural beauty without the summer crowds

CLEARWATER, BRITISH COLUMBIA, CANADA, September 12, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Wells Gray Country is gearing up for an exciting September filled with activities that showcase the beauty and adventure of this incredible region.

Tourism Wells Gray is thrilled to announce that the Wells Gray Golf and RV Resort will be hosting the Canadian National Disc Golf Tournament on September 13 – 15, a highlight of the season that promises to attract seasoned players and spectators alike.

This September, visitors have the opportunity to beat the crowds and experience the transformation of Wells Gray's landscapes as they shift from vibrant summer greens to the warm, rich hues of autumn. With the reopening of the highway to Jasper and Banff, Clearwater and Wells Gray are perfectly positioned as a great stopover for road trips through the Canadian Rockies.

Wells Gray Country is pretty quiet this time of year but our fall scenery is stunning and the weather is typically inviting. We're still one of the province's best-kept destination secrets.”

Claire Hanna

“We're very excited to welcome visitors to our corner of the world this fall,” said Claire Hanna, Executive Director of Tourism Wells Gray. “The National Disc Golf Tournament is a big deal for us, as disc golf has been growing massively in popularity since the pandemic and garnering ever more public attention. Otherwise, Wells Gray Country is pretty quiet this time of year but our fall scenery is stunning and the weather is
