Our team is committed to offering the most effective treatments available to ensure that women can navigate this phase of life feeling supported, healthy, and confident."

FemCare OB/GYN

providing comprehensive and personalized menopause care, helping patients thrive during perimenopause and menopause.

The expert team at FemCare includes Dr. Geoffrey James, Dr. Jason James, Dr. Karen Salazar Valdes, Dr. Jila Senemar, and Dr. Ingrid Paredes, all dedicated to offering the most effective and innovative solutions for managing menopause symptoms. FemCare OB/GYN provides cutting-edge treatments such as MonaLisa Touch for vaginal rejuvenation and SottoPelle[®] Hormone Replacement Therapy (HRT) to help women maintain their quality of life through personalized, hormone-based treatments.

MonaLisa Touch is a non-invasive laser treatment designed to address vaginal dryness, irritation, and discomfort caused by menopause. By stimulating collagen production and improving tissue health, MonaLisa Touch offers a non-hormonal solution for intimate health, providing relief and rejuvenation for women experiencing menopausal symptoms.

SottoPelle[®] HRT, on the other hand, offers an individualized hormone replacement therapy that balances hormones and alleviates common menopause symptoms such as hot flashes, mood swings, and fatigue. By using bioidentical hormones, SottoPelle provides a more natural approach to restoring hormonal balance.

In honor of Menopause Awareness Month, FemCare OB/GYN is offering a special promotion throughout September:

- Get $100 off your first session of SottoPelle[®] HRT

- Get $200 off your first session of MonaLisa Touch

“At FemCare, we believe in empowering women through education and personalized care as they go through menopause,” said FemCare OB/GYN. “Our team is committed to offering the most effective treatments available to ensure that women can navigate this phase of life feeling supported, healthy, and confident.”

FemCare OB/GYN invites women to take advantage of this limited-time offer and schedule a consultation with one of their menopause experts. With a patient-focused approach and state-of-the-art treatments, FemCare continues to set the standard for menopause care.
