

Sage's Journey Begins: Noel-Anne Brennan's 'A Changed World' Ignites Imaginations Amidst Climate Crisis

WAKEFIELD SOUTH KINGSTOWN, RI, UNITED STATES, October 1, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Set on an Earth radically transformed by the consequences of global warming and further chemical pollution, this story follows the adventures of Sage. Sage, a post-apocalyptic tribeswoman, begins her journey when her chosen apprentice is suddenly abducted. Together with a strange band of misfits, she sets off to save her apprentice and an even stranger world.

In "A Changed World," readers meet Sage, a young woman from a poor village in North America who defies her predetermined fate as a concubine by running away to embrace a life of freedom among the untamed plains and mountains. The gripping narrative follows Sage's journey as she gets entangled with a sisterhood of Wanderers and faces unimaginable challenges when her apprentice is taken.

While battling the harsh new world, Sage confronts danger, friendship, and unexpected alliances, including a mysterious man named Thomas from the eastern coast, whose secrets threaten to upend everything. Alongside a mountain lion and a courageous village girl, Sage embarks on a perilous quest to protect her newfound family and the planet from an insidious threat lurking in the shadows.

"A Changed World" will be available for purchase at major retailers and online bookstores, including Amazon, Barnes and Noble, Kobo, and BAM.
