

The European interviews Steve Durbin, Chief Executive of Information Security Forum

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM,
September 17, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- In a time of economic challenges, unstable geopolitics, compromised data, disinformation, AI, supply chain disruption, and a disillusioned workforce, how can businesses create growth and keep risk at acceptable levels?

Steve Durbin is Chief Executive of Information Security Forum

Founded in 1989, the Information Security Forum (ISF) is an independent organisation that is driven by its Members – ranging from Fortune 500 and Forbes 2000 listed corporations, to public-sector bodies and government departments.

Our business-driven solutions provide organisations with the guidance, tools and methodologies needed to tackle the wide-ranging governance, risk and compliance challenges impacting businesses around the world today.
