VFAF launches first newsletter to 10,300 subscribers and growing.

The project initiated by VFAF National Operations director Jeff Hoffmann is geared at immediate grassroots support of the presidential campaign.

The letter will also highlight the organization's rapid national growth and its ongoing efforts to remain the nation's leading political advocate for the America First Agenda, supported by veteran leadership and team members from diverse backgrounds nationwide.

Quoted by our VFAF National Spokesperson, (Ret.) RADM Charles R Kubic, "It is TIME FOR ACTION! "Veterans and all citizens of the United States, it is time to take action to ensure we turn out the 2024 vote for President Trump while ensuring all votes are legal and properly counted."
