What's New:

- AI-Powered Growth Companion, Erica. The highlight of this update is Erica, an AI-driven conversational guide that delivers personalized advice tailored to each user's journey. With Erica's support, users can tackle challenges, set goals, and make decisions aligned with their personal and professional aspirations.

□ Advanced Assessments. The app now includes deeper assessments enhanced by cutting-edge algorithms, allowing users to explore their personalities, values, and talents in detail. These insights empower individuals to develop in ways that reflect their unique strengths.

□ Holistic Resources for Well-being and Success. The new features go beyond assessments, offering curated resources to foster mental health, social engagement, and financial stability. Topics such as self-awareness, relationship-building, fitness, and financial literacy provide a comprehensive toolkit for success.

Quote from Leadership:

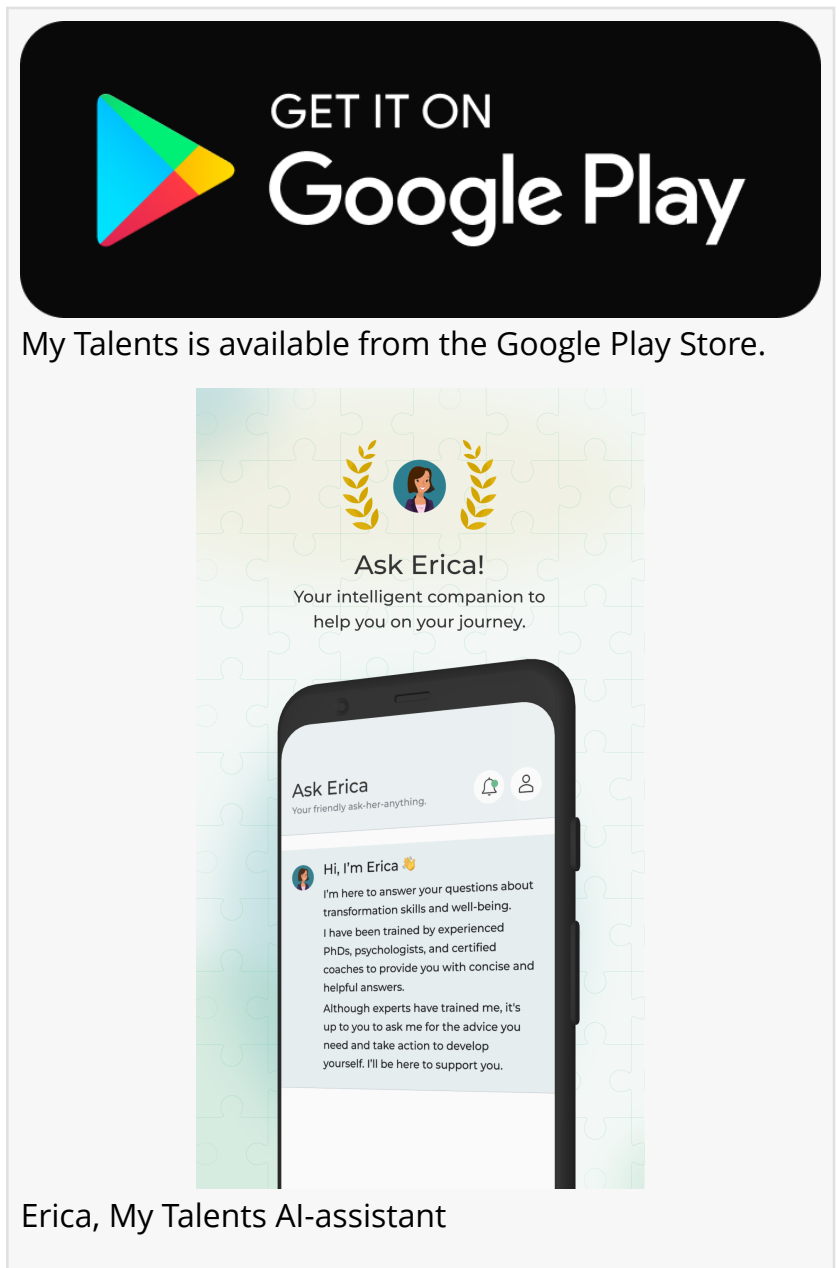

"Our goal has always been to empower people by providing them with the right tools and resources to thrive," said Talent Transformation Executive Director Eric Shepherd, " The development of Erica reflects our unwavering commitment to innovation in the personal development space. We're truly grateful to the 500,000 users who have been part of this incredible journey and to the psychologists, psychometricians, coaches, and partners who have played a key role in shaping Erica and our assessments. Their expertise has been invaluable in delivering a transformative experience for those seeking deeper self-awareness and well-being."

Real-World Impact:

The My Talents app is already making a difference for users like these:

□ Julia: "I couldn't believe it wasn't a real person! Erica's answers were so helpful that I was chatting with her for half an hour."

□ Morgan: "Thank you, Erica! I was on the verge of giving up on college, but you helped me see
