

Trellis Spa Launches 'Receive One Facial, Give One Facial' in Honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month

Guests who receive a facial before October 11 will be able to gift a complimentary facial to someone currently undergoing oncology treatment.

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, September 18, 2024 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Trellis Spa, Houston's premier wellness destination known for its commitment to holistic rejuvenation, is proud to announce its "Receive One Facial, Give One Facial" event. This initiative allows guests to treat themselves while uplifting the spirits of those undergoing oncology treatment.

From September 16 to October 11, Trellis Spa guests who receive a Natura Bissé facial can provide an opportunity for a complimentary facial to those that have survived or are currently undergoing cancer treatment. Those individuals will then have the unique opportunity to indulge in a personalized facial from an oncology-trained aesthetician inside the famed Pure Air Bubble between October 14 to 17. The Pure Air Bubble provides an unparalleled detox experience, where guests can breathe 99.99% pure air to help eliminate toxins and dead cells, which aids in leaving the skin looking glowing and beautiful.

In addition to the complimentary facial, all guests at Trellis Spa are invited to enjoy the spa's many amenities, including its Soaking Pools and Garden, which have indoor and outdoor soaking opportunities, private cabanas, and several lounging areas. Trellis Spa also offers an indoor reflection pool, a steam room, a hot tub area in the women's locker room, and a spacious Tranquility Room with comfortable lounging areas.

"During a time when lives are upended by cancer, scheduling a facial is probably the last thing on a patient's to-do list," said Kellee Martin, Trellis Spa Director. "That is why this 'Receive One Facial, Give One Facial' event is so special. We hope to provide a moment of well-being, relaxation, and care to those navigating the challenges of oncology treatment. It's our way of giving back and supporting our community during their journey towards wellness."

In using this one-to-one model of buy one and give one, Trellis Spa and Natura Bissé are helping to support a more significant health and community involvement endeavor.

In using this one-to-one model of buy one and give one, Trellis Spa and Natura Bissé are helping to support a more significant health and community involvement endeavor. The initiative is generously underwritten by the Ricardo Fisas Natura Bissé Foundation, whose mission is to empower those navigating a cancer journey. The Foundation fosters holistic well-being, enhances self-esteem, and nurtures resilience through specialized oncology skin care and education.
