According to officials, U.S. Secret Service agents stationed a few holes away from where Trump was playing noticed the muzzle of an AK-style rifle protruding from shrubbery approximately 400 yards away. Acting swiftly, an agent opened fire on the would-be assassin, who fled the scene, leaving behind two backpacks, a rifle scope, and a GoPro camera. According to Martin County Sheriff William Snyder, the suspect was apprehended later in a neighboring county and remained calm and emotionless during the arrest, never questioning why he was stopped.

"The FBI is investigating what appears to be an attempted assassination of former President Trump," the bureau confirmed in a statement.
