

Panopto Announces New Partnership and Enhanced Integration with Open LMS

New VCMS features added to support Panopto customers using Open LMS

PITTSBURGH, PA, UNITED STATES, September 16, 2024 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Panopto, the global leader in AI-powered video content management solutions (VCMS) for higher education and workforce training, announced its expanded partnership with Open LMS, a top provider of learning management systems. The collaboration will deliver deeper integration and enhanced support for the companies' mutual customers and will drive more immersive online learning experiences for users.

To enhance the user experience for Open LMS customers, Panopto has developed and released two new features to its best-in-class VCMS platform. The Panopto Course Embed Tool allows educators to seamlessly embed Panopto course folders or individual videos within their courses. This tool also provides the capability to configure videos to send grades to the LMS based on quiz results or video completion percentage, streamlining the grading process and enhancing the learning experience.

Additionally, the Panopto Student Submission Tool empowers instructors to create assignments that prompt students to record and submit videos for grading. This feature simplifies setting up workflows for instructors, allowing students to easily submit videos for grading as part of the curriculum design.

"Our extended partnership with Open LMS helps our customer deliver an enriched online learning program by equipping educators with the necessary tools to create more engaging and
