

Forbidden Love, Tested Loyalties, and Family Drama: Rossana Snee's New Novel Explodes with Conflict

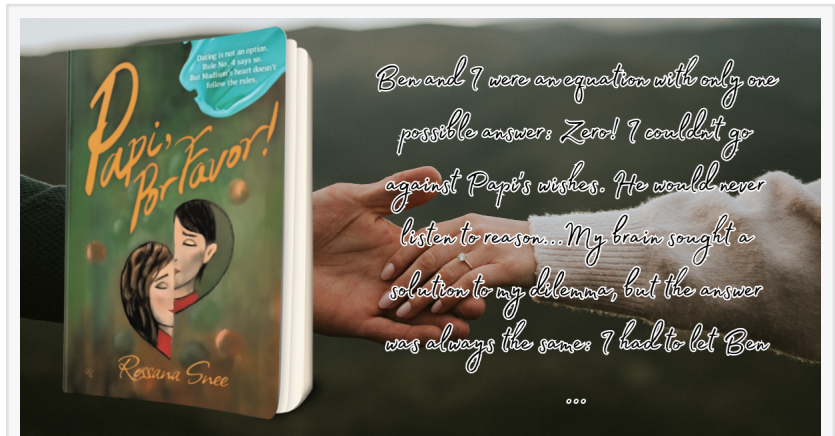

Sixteen-year-old Madison, held back by her overprotective Papi, finds herself secretly falling for new student Ben, but lies about her feelings soon unravel.

LAKESWOOD, CA, UNITED STATES, October 1, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sixteen-year-old Madison Michaels has never ventured into the realm of love, a fact she finds perfectly acceptable. Raised under the vigilant eye of her exceedingly protective father, Pablo Pérez, Madison's world adheres strictly to Rule #4: Stay Away from Boys! However, the arrival of Ben Warren, a charming newcomer in Madison's English class, shatters her resolve with his charisma and benevolence, swiftly captivating her heart.

Ben and I were an equation with one answer: zero! I couldn't defy Papi's wishes; he wouldn't be reasonable. My mind searched for solutions, but the conclusion remained: I had to let Ben go.”

Regrettably, Madison's newfound emotions must remain concealed, a clandestine relationship shielded from her adoptive twin sisters, Caro and Tina, her friend, Nina Abbott—who harbors her own affection for Ben—and her closest companions, Elena Mercado and Mari Rosales, particularly the skeptical Mari who perceives Ben as a troublemaker best avoided.

As Madison's attachment to Ben deepens, so too do her fabrications. Yet, akin to a cork bobbing to the surface, lies inevitably emerge, laying bare Madison's intricate web of deceit to all involved, including Nina, whose infatuation with PRIDE AND PREJUDICE leads her to envision Ben as her "Mr. Darcy" and Madison as her newfound adversary. Madison understands she should not succumb to love. Madison comprehends she cannot pursue a relationship with Ben. Madison knows better, yet her heart refuses to heed reason.
