Chuck Anderson, the former owner of Vail Valley Garage Door, has played a key role in building the company's sterling reputation for quality and service. Anderson has agreed to stay on as a consultant, ensuring a smooth transition and helping to maintain the company's strong sales performance and quality standards.

“We are thrilled to bring Vail Valley Garage Door under the Prutch's Garage Door umbrella,” said Garrett Stevens, Owner of Prutch's Garage Door. “This acquisition bolsters our footprint in the Colorado overhead door market. Vail Valley Garage Door is a well-established brand in the I-70 Resort corridor, and their reputation for quality aligns perfectly with our vision and values. Having Chuck stay on board is the cherry on top!”

“This is an exciting new chapter for Vail Valley Garage Door,” said Chuck Anderson. “I look forward to continuing to work with our team and support the company’s growth leveraging Prutch’s service model and statewide infrastructure.”

Prutch’s Garage Door now operates four locations across Colorado, including Pueblo, Colorado Springs, Gunnison/Crested Butte, and Vail. The company has a long-standing reputation for delivering high-quality garage doors and exceptional customer service to homeowners and businesses throughout the state.
