“We’re happy to partner with Raymour & Flanigan on this initiative,” said Cathy Del Priore, Executive Director of The GRACE Foundation. “We encourage the community to come visit the showroom and view the artwork in person, however, if you can’t make it to the showroom visit our website at www.graceofny.org where you can view and bid on these beautiful pieces created by our participants.”

The overall theme of the artwork is the participants interpretation of the New York City Skyline as a means of tribute to the events of 9/11.

“The GRACE Foundation is very special to us, and the work they do is inspiring,” said Chris Vendemio, Store Manager of Raymour & Flanigan. “The participants are so excited about the art installation, and seeing the smiles on their faces was amazing.”

In addition to the exhibit, Raymour & Flanigan also presented The GRACE Foundation with a donation of $500.

The exhibit will remain in the showroom until September 30th. Pieces can be viewed and bid on by visiting www.graceofny.org. On September 30th the highest bidder will win the piece of art. All proceeds raised to benefit programming at The GRACE Foundation of New York.
