

Regal and Nautique of Orlando Expands to Clermont Area by Merging with 7 Watersports

ORLANDO, FL, UNITED STATES,
September 16, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Regal and Nautique of Orlando is excited to announce its expansion into the Clermont area through a strategic merger with 7 Watersports, a well-respected dealer based in Groveland, Florida. This move represents a significant milestone in our commitment to sharing our passion for boating and providing exceptional service across an even broader region.

The merger will bring together two renowned names in the boating industry, blending Regal and Nautique's longstanding reputation for high-quality boats and unparalleled customer care with 7 Watersports' deep-rooted expertise and strong local presence. This collaboration will enhance our ability to serve boating enthusiasts throughout Central Florida, offering a wider range of products and services to meet their needs.

"We are thrilled to join forces with 7 Watersports," said Jeff Husby, General Manager and Owner of Regal and Nautique of Orlando. "This merger aligns perfectly with our vision of expanding our reach while maintaining the high standards of service that our customers have come to expect. Combining our resources and knowledge will enable us to offer even greater value to our clients and strengthen our position as the leading destination for premium boats and marine experiences."

Matthew Manzari, a former professional wakeskater, current Centurion athlete, and Founder of 7 Watersports, said, "Our shared dedication to the boating lifestyle and commitment to exceptional customer service makes this an ideal partnership. We look forward to welcoming our new customers and continuing to offer the outstanding experiences that have defined both of our brands."
