Growth Driver of The Boronate Affinity Tests Market

The increasing diabetic population is expected to propel the growth of the boronate affinity tests market going forward. Diabetes is a chronic medical condition characterized by high blood glucose levels due to the body's inability to produce or effectively use insulin. The diabetes cases are rising due to poor diet, especially high consumption of processed foods and sugary drinks, and sedentary lifestyles characterized by minimal physical activity. Moreover, the aging population and family history of diabetes increase the risk, indicating a genetic predisposition. Boronate affinity tests are used in diabetes management to accurately measure glycosylated proteins, providing a reliable indicator of long-term blood glucose control.
