Definition

The International PEO (Professional Employer Organization) Service Market involves companies that provide outsourced HR solutions for businesses expanding globally. PEOs act as the legal employer on behalf of their clients, handling payroll, tax compliance, employee benefits, and local employment regulations in various countries. This allows companies to hire employees in foreign markets without needing to establish a legal entity, simplifying global expansion. The International PEO market is driven by the increasing trend of businesses seeking to enter new international markets while minimizing operational complexities and compliance risks.
