performance in the rapidly growing field of digital assets, further solidifying Golden Pear Capital's reputation for excellence in crypto investment.

The HFM APAC Performance Awards are renowned for their rigorous selection process, which objectively evaluates nominees and winners based on Sharpe ratios and absolute returns. This approach highlights funds that excel in managing volatility while generating significant alpha. As a long-biased hedge fund with a strong conviction in the transformative potential of cryptocurrency and blockchain technology, Golden Pear

Capital has consistently demonstrated its ability to capture upside opportunities while navigating the complexities of the digital asset space. This recognition underscores the firm's success in delivering outstanding returns for its investors, driven by its belief in the long-term value of blockchain and digital assets.

Allan Matheson, Founder of Golden Pear Capital, commented on the win: "We are honored to receive this award in such a competitive category. This recognition reflects our team's dedication to innovation and disciplined risk management, especially as emerging managers in the dynamic world of digital assets. Our mission has always been to deliver consistent, high-quality returns for our investors, and this award validates that commitment."

Golden Pear Capital remains at the forefront of digital asset investment, driven by an unwavering commitment to identifying alpha in a rapidly evolving landscape. This achievement underscores the firm's ability to set new benchmarks for performance and resilience. We owe this success to the dedication and expertise of our incredible team, as well as the trust and support of our investors and partners. We extend our deepest gratitude to all who have contributed to this journey and remain focused on delivering value and innovation for the future.
