Albert Lupin, CEO and Founder of Pneuma Behavioral Health, expressed his enthusiasm, stating, "We are thrilled to welcome Crossroads Counseling Center into Pneuma's group of outpatient behavioral health practices. This alliance not only enriches our service offerings but also extends our reach to more communities in need of exceptional mental health support."

Established in 1994, Crossroads has built a solid reputation for delivering comprehensive outpatient services to individuals of all ages. Their mental health services encompass therapy, psychological testing, forensic assessments, and medication management, with a deep commitment to fostering the well-being of children, families, and adults.

Crossroads joins Pneuma's North Carolina portfolio, which includes Carolina Psychological Health Services in Jacksonville, Child and Family Therapy Center in Mooresville, Bright Path Behavioral Health in Wake Forest, and Mind Matters in Wilmington. Pneuma has plans to expand across multiple states in the near future, furthering its mission to expand access to high quality mental health care, while prioritizing great working environments for clinicians.
