

Attorney Cara Stropp Joins Law Firm of Boyes, Farina & Matwiczkyk

Stropp Specializes in Estate Planning, Asset Protection, Probate/Trust Administration

PALM BEACH GARDENS, FL, UNITED STATES, September 17, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Boyes, Farina & Matwiczkyk, a boutique litigation law firm serving Northern Palm Beaches since 1994, has announced the addition of Cara Stropp to its team of award-winning, nationally recognized attorneys. In this role, Stropp will specialize in Estate Planning, Asset Protection, and Probate/Trust Administration.

A graduate of Florida Atlantic University with a degree in business, as well as Florida International University School of Law where she earned her Juris Doctor, Stropp's legal career is firmly rooted in her commitment to serving the diverse needs of her clients. That includes parents seeking to protect their children's future, seniors planning for their long-term care, and families navigating the complexities of Probate.

Cara Stropp

Cara is a trustworthy advocate, committed to serving her clients best interests and achieving their goals,”

William E. Boyes, partner at Boyes, Farina & Matwiczkyk

Stropp is an active member of several professional organizations, including the Florida Bar Association, Elder Law and Real Property, Probate & Trust Law sections of the Florida Bar, Young Lawyers Division, and the Palm Beach County Bar Association. Her involvement reflects her dedication to both her profession and her community.

Balancing her career with her role as a mother of two and wife of a law enforcement officer, Cara understands the significance of family and community. Her personal and professional lives intersect in her compassionate and personalized approach to legal representation. Outside of work, she enjoys ice skating and supports her family's involvement in local youth sports, including a travel baseball organization.
