A Multiplayer Cat Royale: Snaky Cat Google Play Early Access Live Now

Compete to grow the longest cat in this meow vs. meow battle royale!

KUALA LUMPUR, MALAYSIA, September 18, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With over 500,000 players pre-registered for Snaky Cat, a Snake-inspired multiplayer io game, Appxplore (iCandy) marks this major milestone by opening up the game for early access on Google Play.

Starting September 18th, players from the following countries will be able to sink their paws into Snaky Cat's kitten vs. kitten PVP action: Canada, Argentina, Australia, Malaysia, the UK, Saudi Arabia, and South Africa. As only a limited number of early access player slots are available on a first-come-first-serve basis, interested players are encouraged to sign up as soon as possible at https://appxplore.com/snakycat.

Meow vs Meow Battle Royale

Appxplore (iCandy) showcased Snaky Cat's simple yet exciting gameplay earlier this year with the release of the game's pre-registration trailer. Players control serpentine cats within a candy-filled zone, competing to devour donuts, grow as long as possible, and slither up the leaderboards before the timer runs out.

But there's a catch: you must worm your way around other kittens to avoid crashing into them and bringing your run to a premature end. On the flip side, those who make their feline foes explode into delicious treats get to lap up the spoils of battle and skyrocket through the ranks.

Players who are not eligible for early access may still pre-register for Snaky Cat to receive generous rewards. To celebrate the noteworthy milestone of 500,000 pre-registrations, Appxplore (iCandy) will be giving out a Legendary Cat as well as exclusive cosmetics for Appxplore's other award-winning casual gaming titles, Crab War and Claw Stars.
