

The Sage Group Expands Team in Australia – Chris Rossidis Joins as New Executive Director

The Sage Group has announced that Chris Rossidis will join their team in Australia and APAC, to offer strategic transactional services to life science clients.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, September 18, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Sage Group Inc. today announced that Chris Rossidis will join the firm as an Executive Director (<https://www.linkedin.com/in/chris-rossidis-a5b42a1a/>).

“We are delighted that Chris has decided to join Sage to represent us in Australia, New Zealand and APAC. Chris will bring his wide-ranging expertise with healthcare and bioscience clients in the APAC region to The Sage Group. Chris has a prestigious career in the pharma industry, ranging from startups to large corporate entities, and this will complement our existing skill set at Sage Group.” said Wayne Pambianchi, Executive Director of The Sage Group. “Chris brings both a strong scientific background in pharma as well as extensive commercial experience.”

Chris received his BSc in Biochemistry and Microbiology from La Trobe University.

With over 30 years of extensive experience in the medical-pharmaceutical sector, Chris is a highly accomplished international pharmaceutical business development executive. He boasts a proven track record in establishing successful enterprises, notably including his leadership in the development of his privately owned Australian/NZ specialized pharmaceutical firm, Emerge Health, which Chris built and sold to Chiesi. Chris excels in formulating compelling business strategies, crafting persuasive business plans, and overseeing successful product launches for companies under his guidance.

Throughout his career, Chris has garnered invaluable insights and expertise in medical business development across Australia and the Asia Pacific region. His proficiency ranges from product-business alignment to devising optimal commercialization strategies for effective market penetration.

Chris possesses a profound understanding of market dynamics, adeptly formulating business strategies with a sharp focus on strategic marketing and project management within the pharmaceuticals, biotechnology, and medical devices sectors.

“I am pleased to join The Sage Group and to assist them in building on their great industry track record with Australian/NZ clients” said Chris. “My skills and industry experience will be highly synergistic with Sage Group’s clients, and working together we can achieve great things for our partners and clients in the pharma, diagnostics and medtech sectors, as well as in the financial sector serving the industry.”

I am pleased to join The Sage Group and to assist them in building on a great industry track record with APAC clients. We can achieve great things for our clients in the bioscience sector.”
