

Nicola Dewhurst's forthcoming illustrative book 'Moany Dad' is all set to hit the market

DUBAI, UAE, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, September 24, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The United Arab Emirates – UAE, also known as the land of peace and opportunities, has numerous ambitious and reputable writers. Nicola Dewhurst is also one of the many aspiring authors on the list. She is a novice in the industry, but her goals are visionary. She hopes to continue influencing young minds as an educator while exploring new cultures in the Arabian Gulf. Her first book is a fun style of introducing children to valuable and altruistic kinships at a very young age.

Nicola's impending short story for the early readers will surely grace many bookshelves. In addition, it shall also be a super hit because the author herself comes from a background where she had to migrate to the UAE from the United Kingdom. Her narrative, ought to be relatable for people struggling to overcome perspective conflicts. So, trust us when we say she is the queen of her game!

Jessica is the protagonist of her tale. A girl who moves to the United Arab Emirates with her family of three. A beautiful mom, a fun-loving brother, Josh and a constantly complaining father. Jessica and Josh were quite excited about the change that they were witnessing as they relocated.

However, there was someone who was not settling – the father. He eventually started to become a source of frustration for the family because he never liked a thing in the new country. Traffic made him angry, the heat irritated him, and the prices would stress him. It seemed like there was nothing in the whole UAE he would approve of, all thanks to his negative outlook. Hence, he deserved the nickname 'Moany Dad'.

Upon noticing closely, you will realise that the underlining theme of Nicola's story is learning to adapt and the impact of one's perspectives. She has also made efforts to shed light on the issues of relocating and the way one may find happiness in an unusual place. However, she successfully managed to wrap these intriguing lessons into a layer of humour and family dynamics. All of this has made the story more relatable for people of all ages.

This narrative about how each family member muddles through the significant changes is inspiring. Moreover, the author also wishes to convey the importance of the support that comes from family during these life challenges.
