

DRS Gaming and Horaa Esports Carry Nepal's Hopes into the 2024 PUBG MOBILE Global Championship

NEPAL, September 18, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Nepalese esports continues to reach new heights as both DRS Gaming and Horaa Esports have officially secured their spots in the prestigious 2024 PUBG MOBILE Global Championship (PMGC). This achievement marks a pivotal moment for Nepal's competitive PUBG MOBILE scene, with the nation's top teams preparing to compete on the global stage in the final event of the 2024 season.

DRS Gaming, a veteran in Nepalese esports with PMGC appearances in 2023, 2022, and 2021, once again proved their dominance, securing 4th place in the 2024 PUBG MOBILE Super League (PMSL) CSA Finals. With a total of 152 points, including 23 points carried over from their impressive league-stage performance, DRS recorded three first-place finishes in matches 2, 15, and 16, while eliminating 79 opponents.

Meanwhile, Horaa Esports made history by qualifying for PMGC for the very first time. Finishing 6th in the 2024 PMSL CSA Finals with 136 points, Horaa delivered a stellar performance with 72 eliminations and two first-place finishes in matches 5 and 6. Nofear911 distinguished himself as the MVP of match 6, further demonstrating his
