DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, September 19, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jigar Sagar, a prominent UAE-based entrepreneur and investor, today announced the successful sale of his shares in Creative Zone, a leading business setup and consultancy firm, to an investment fund in a multi-million dollar deal. With this exit, Sagar will now focus his efforts on revolutionizing government services and advancing multiple free zone operations through public-private partnerships.

Sagar has been pivotal to the growth of Creative Zone, transforming it into the largest business setup advisory firm in Dubai. Under his leadership, a team of 160 professionals helped expand the company into new territories and develop complementary ventures like Creative Zone Business Hub and Creative Zone Tax & Accounting.

Having started his journey with Creative Zone as a Finance Manager, Sagar's role evolved over the years, where he became a trusted leader in sales, operations, and government relations, eventually securing a stake in the company. "I am incredibly grateful for what we have achieved at Creative Zone and the impact we've had on the UAE's entrepreneurial landscape," Sagar said. "As I move on to my next chapter, I'm excited to continue driving innovation and growth through my work with government entities and free zones."

With over 31 ventures and a combined valuation exceeding $350 million, Sagar's entrepreneurial expertise has made a profound impact on UAE free zones and public-private partnerships. His forward-thinking approach has brought about significant innovation and digitization in these areas, further cementing his legacy as a leader in government services.
