

Luxury Villa "GRAND CHARIOT Hokutoshichisei 135°" Announces Gift Campaign for NARUTO Collaboration Room Guests

A framed set of 37 original "Gemaki"-style cards will be exclusively gifted to guests staying at the NARUTO collaboration room

AWAJI CITY, HYOGO PREFECTURE, JAPAN, September 20, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Luxury villa "GRAND CHARIOT Hokutoshichisei 135°" has announced the "Naruto Uzumaki Birthday Festival" campaign from Saturday, September 28th to Sunday, November 10th, to celebrate the character's October 10th birthday. Guests staying in "Hokage Villa", the Naruto-themed collaboration room, will receive a complete set of 37 "Shinobi-Zato Original Character Cards" based on "Gemaki" ("Extreme Ninja Cards" from "Boruto: Naruto Next Generations").

Visitors to the "NARUTO & BORUTO Shinobi-Zato" attraction at anime park Nijigen no Mori, within which the villa is located, receive two of these "Gemaki"-style "Shinobi-Zato Original Character Cards" at random, making a complete set of 37 cards difficult to obtain.

[Facility Overview]

GRAND CHARIOT Hokutoshichisei 135° features 23 cocoon-like villas with a spectacular view of the sunrise and starry skies from the 5-meter-high skylights. Dining is supervised by Hal Yamashita, a master chef representing Japan with 13 restaurants in Japan and abroad. Cuisine is prepared with local ingredients from Awaji Island, a region known as "miketsukuni", an ancient treasure trove of culinary delights that traditionally supplied the Imperial Court with food.

[Dining]

Under the supervision of Chef Hal Yamashita, a "Food Advisor" for Hyogo Prefecture, guests can enjoy dishes prepared with local ingredients from Awaji Island, a region known as "miketsukuni", an ancient treasure trove of culinary delights that traditionally supplied the Imperial Court with food.

□Dinner□

Modern Japanese cuisine supervised by Chef Hal Yamashita, who owns 13 restaurants in Japan and abroad, including one in Tokyo Midtown. Chef Yamashita, who has been selected as a Master Chef for two consecutive World Gourmet Summits at which the world's top chefs gather, embodies "modern Japanese cuisine" that maximizes the life and breath of the ingredients.

Ingredients include Awaji beef, of which only about 200 cows are harvested annually, Yura sea urchin, which can only be served at its freshest, and sukiyaki with plenty of vegetables such as Awaji Island onions and tomatoes, among other seasonal menu choices.

*Ingredients may vary depending on the season.

□Breakfast>

Breakfast begins with the Grand Chariot "Morning Start Meal" with grilled Setouchi fish and the famous Awaji Dashi Rolled Egg, served with freshly cooked Awaji Island rice.

[Bath]

All rooms are equipped with hinoki (Japanese cypress) baths for a soothing fresh scent.
