

Skribe AI Secures Strategic Investment from The LegalTech Fund to Reinvent Remote Depositions

Skribe AI is dedicated to modernizing the deposition process, providing litigators with the means to capture, share, and analyze testimony more efficiently!

AUSTIN, TX, UNITED STATES, September 24, 2024 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Skribe.AI, the Austin-based legal tech startup, is proud to announce a significant new investment from The LegalTech Fund (TLTF), a partner for companies transforming the world of law. This funding marks an important endorsement of Skribe's mission to revolutionize the deposition process for litigators with an advanced, AI-powered platform.

The Skribe logo features the word "Skribe" in a blue serif font. The letter "k" is stylized with a large, solid blue triangle pointing to the left, replacing the vertical stem of the letter.

The Future of Capturing Legal Testimony!

"The LegalTech Fund's investment in Skribe is a testament to our shared vision of transforming the legal industry," said Tom Irby, CEO of Skribe AI. "Their expertise and network will be invaluable as we continue to grow our offering to more litigation firms and aim to set new standards in the power of AI in legal tech."

Tom Irby

The LegalTech Fund, known for its focus on supporting startups spearheading advancements within the legal technology sector, was particularly impressed by Skribe's application of AI to streamline the capture, creation, and analysis of deposition-related media. By combining capital with their seasoned community of experts, TLTF enables companies like Skribe AI to enhance the efficiency of legal services while driving down costs.

“TLTF is committed to investing in companies that are transforming the world of law and Skribe is redefining the standard for capturing and analyzing critical testimony,” said Zach Posner, Managing Director of The LegalTech Fund. “This will allow for reduced costs and greater efficiency in the legal system, creating transparency that is essential in increasing access to legal services.”
