This recognition from Goodpods is not just a win for the podcast, but for every entrepreneur who desires to serve God in the secular marketplace."

Katie Hornor

Goodpods, a global platform that ranks podcasts based on community engagement, listens, and reviews. This achievement is a significant milestone for both Hornor (often misspelled Horner) and the thousands of Christian entrepreneurs who tune in each week.

Katie Hornor, a celebrated author, keynote speaker, and business strategist, has been podcasting since 2017. She launched The Flamingo Advantage Podcast with one mission: to empower Christian entrepreneurs to embrace their God-given uniqueness in business. Much like the flamingo—an emblem of standing out in a world that prizes conformity—Hornor's podcast encourages listeners to walk confidently in their purpose, equipped with both faith and smart marketing strategies.

"It's incredible to see how The Flamingo Advantage has resonated with entrepreneurs who want to grow their businesses while honoring their faith," said Katie Hornor. "This recognition from Goodpods is not just a win for the podcast, but for every entrepreneur who desires to serve God in the secular marketplace."

With insightful episodes that weave together biblical principles and actionable business advice, The Flamingo Advantage has carved out its niche as a trusted resource for Christian business owners. Each episode features solo lessons from Hornor herself, as well as interviews with seasoned entrepreneurs and well known thought leaders who share their stories of faith and business. These conversations are full of practical wisdom, offering listeners a roadmap to build successful businesses without compromising their values.

Goodpods, a community-driven podcast platform, highlights top shows based on real listener interactions. The Flamingo Advantage Podcast's placement in the "Top 10 Christian Business Podcasts" reflects its rapid growth and the deep connection it has fostered with listeners. Hornor's mix of authenticity, expertise, and passion for Kingdom-driven business has earned the show praise for its unique ability to speak to the hearts of Christian entrepreneurs.

Listeners have expressed their admiration for the podcast's fresh approach, describing it as an essential resource for anyone balancing the challenges of running a business and living out their faith. "This "is a must listen podcast" one listener said. "Great "perspective. Sound advice. One of the few not afraid to tackle Bible and business together."
