Performance Improvement and Green
Capital Partners Launches a New Service to Bridge the Gap Between
Finance and Sustainability

New consultancy service aims to revolutionise the sustainable finance landscape

Today marks the official launch of Green Capital Partners, a pioneering consultancy service dedicated to empowering businesses and organisations in the realm of sustainable finance. With a mission to catalyse positive change, Green Capital Partners is set to bridge the gap between financial success and environmental responsibility.

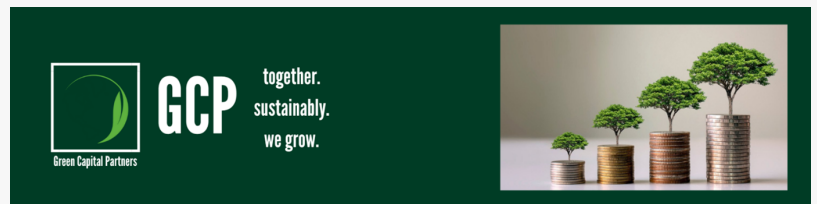

In an era where climate change and sustainability are at the forefront of global concerns, Green Capital Partners emerges as a beacon for businesses seeking to align their financial strategies with environmental, social, and governance (ESG) principles.

This launch, from Plutus Consulting comes at a critical time when the demand for sustainable finance solutions is rapidly growing across various sectors.

"We are thrilled to introduce Green Capital Partners to the world," said John Martin, Founder and CEO of Plutus. "Our growing team of expert consultants brings together deep financial acumen and a comprehensive understanding of ESG principles. We're here to prove that profitability and sustainability are not mutually exclusive, but rather, two sides of the same coin."

“Working with its technology and diagnostic partner, Aspire Performance Improvement, we will offer a unique, fractional and bespoke service across all sectors that have sustainability as a core strategy, principle and mandate within its DNA.”

Green Capital Partners through its strategic partner network, will offer a wide range of services, including:

1. Diagnostic surveys using ASPIRE ID8
2. Sustainable investment portfolio design
3. ESG risk and opportunity assessment
4. Green project financing
5. Carbon footprint management
6. Tailored sustainability strategies

The service will cater to a diverse clientele, from multinational corporations and SMEs to financial institutions and individual investors, providing customised solutions that drive both financial performance and positive environmental impact.

“What sets Green Capital Partners apart is its collaborative approach,” explained a senior strategic partner at Plutus, “We don't just provide advice; we partner closely with our clients to co-create strategies that integrate sustainability into every aspect of their financial decision-making.”

The launch of Green Capital Partners has been met with enthusiasm from industry commentators, “The emergence of firms providing services like Green Capital Partners is exactly what the industry needs. Their approach to combining financial expertise with sustainability principles will be instrumental in driving the transition to a greener economy.”

As part of its post launch, Green Capital Partners will be hosting a virtual event soon, featuring case studies, expert panels, and networking opportunities for businesses interested in exploring sustainable finance options.
