About the Remixer :

Iman Deeper

Iman Deeper: Chart-Topping Producer, DJ, and Label Owner

Tehran-born and Berlin-based, Iman Deeper is a chart-topping producer, DJ, and independent entrepreneur, known for his signature blend of melodic house, techno, and deep hypnotic trance. Since 2006, Iman has been creating music that tells a story, delivering DJ sets and live performances that engage and move audiences worldwide through his unique techniques and deep connection to sound. Iman's creative journey began with Persian calligraphy in his childhood, which later expanded into a decade of studying Chinese martial arts.

These early influences shaped his disciplined approach to music, allowing him to explore sound as a way to connect with collective emotions and experiences. Over his 15-year career, he has released over 50 tracks, with more than 10 reaching the Beatport Top 100. His music isn't limited to the Iman Deeper name. Through projects like Aananda and La Roca, and most recently MYTHRON, launched in 2024 with Portugal based Phireka Records, Iman explores transformational and ambient music, focusing on the healing and therapeutic qualities of sound—a passion he has developed through years of personal study.

As the founder of DEED MUSIC BERLIN, Iman leads a fast-growing independent label, building a community that supports both rising and established talents in melodic house and techno. His consistency, self-made path, and deep roots in Tehran's underground music scene have made him a respected and sought after figure globally. Iman Deeper's blend of cultural influences and thoughtful approach to music ensures each performance is a meaningful experience, making him an ideal artist for festivals, clubs, and events seeking a deep, transformative musical journey. This version has a more humble tone, rearranged wording, and emphasizes his childhood calligraphy and later martial arts studies.
