

The Caring Congregation Announces National Care Ministry Webinar: Equipping Churches to Foster a Culture of Care

The Caring Congregation is hosting a course designed for church pastors, staff, and volunteers eager to foster a culture of care within their congregations.

OVERLAND PARK, KS, UNITED STATES, September 24, 2024 / EINPresswire.com/ -- The Caring Congregation is excited to announce its upcoming National Care Ministry Webinar, set to take place October 18-19, 2024 from 9 AM to 4 PM CT each day. This two-day, live-streamed event is designed to empower church pastors, staff, and volunteers with the tools and training necessary to cultivate a strong care ministry within their congregations and communities.

Led by Rev. Karen Lampe and The Caring Congregation's national team, this comprehensive training will cover foundational aspects of care ministry, including:

- Theological Foundations of Care
- Prayer and Spiritual Guidance
- Active Listening and Setting Boundaries
- Visitation and Care for the Dying
- Organizing and Leading a Care Ministry

Attendees will participate in interactive sessions and practical exercises, gaining hands-on experience in creating meaningful care initiatives. The course will conclude with a closing worship service and commissioning, affirming participants' commitment to fostering a compassionate and supportive ministry.

The graphic features a bright orange background. On the left, the text 'Care Ministry Webinar' is written in large, bold, black font. Below it, the dates 'OCT 18-19, 2024' and 'FRI/SAT 9AM-4PM DAILY' are displayed. Further down, it says '2-Day Live-Streamed Online Introductory Care Ministry Course'. On the right side, there are two book covers: 'Implementation Guide' and 'Care Minister's Manual', both featuring a tree with colorful autumn leaves. At the bottom of the graphic, the logo for 'THE CARING CONGREGATION' is shown, with the tagline 'creating excellence in church care ministry'. The entire graphic is framed by a thin white border.

Caring Congregation Fall Webinar

Webinar Highlights Include:

Certificate of Completion: Earn 10 contact hours in congregational care.

30-Day Access to Recordings: Review course materials at your convenience.

Follow-Up Meeting: Participate in a post-webinar Zoom session for continued discussion and support.
