

Nominations Now Open for the 2025 Cybersecurity Excellence Awards

Celebrating 10 years of recognizing excellence, the prestigious awards honor outstanding companies and professionals shaping the future of cybersecurity.

BALTIMORE, MD, UNITED STATES, September 25, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The highly anticipated 2025 Cybersecurity Excellence Awards are now open for nominations, honoring achievements and celebrating innovation, leadership, and excellence in the global cybersecurity industry. Marking 10 years of recognizing excellence since 2016, these prestigious awards honor outstanding contributions from companies, professionals, and the innovative solutions shaping the future of cybersecurity.

As the cyber threat landscape continues to evolve, and expanding attack surfaces expose new vulnerabilities, the Cybersecurity Excellence Awards provide a proven platform for organizations and leaders to gain global recognition for their efforts in advancing cybersecurity practices and driving the industry forward.

"As cybersecurity threats grow more sophisticated, it's the innovators and leaders who truly make an impact," says Holger Schulze, CEO of Cybersecurity Insiders and founder of the 600,000-member Information Security Community on LinkedIn, which organizes the annual Cybersecurity Excellence Awards. "The 2025 awards will highlight those pushing the boundaries—whether it's through pioneering AI advancements, reimagining threat detection, or developing solutions that redefine how we safeguard critical data and infrastructure in an increasingly complex digital landscape."

Why Participate in the 2025 Cybersecurity Excellence Awards?

The 2025 Cybersecurity Excellence Awards offer robust recognition, marketing, and third-party validation opportunities within the global cybersecurity community:
