

MIYO Health: A Leader in Innovation, Awarded by Fast Company

Discover MIYO EHR: Our innovative platform offers a suite of integrated tools, flexibility, and enhanced security to empower mental health providers.

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES,
September 24, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- MIYO Health, a leading provider of mental health solutions, is proud to announce its recognition as a finalist in the Education & Nonprofits category of Fast Company's Sixth Annual List of Best Workplaces for Innovators.

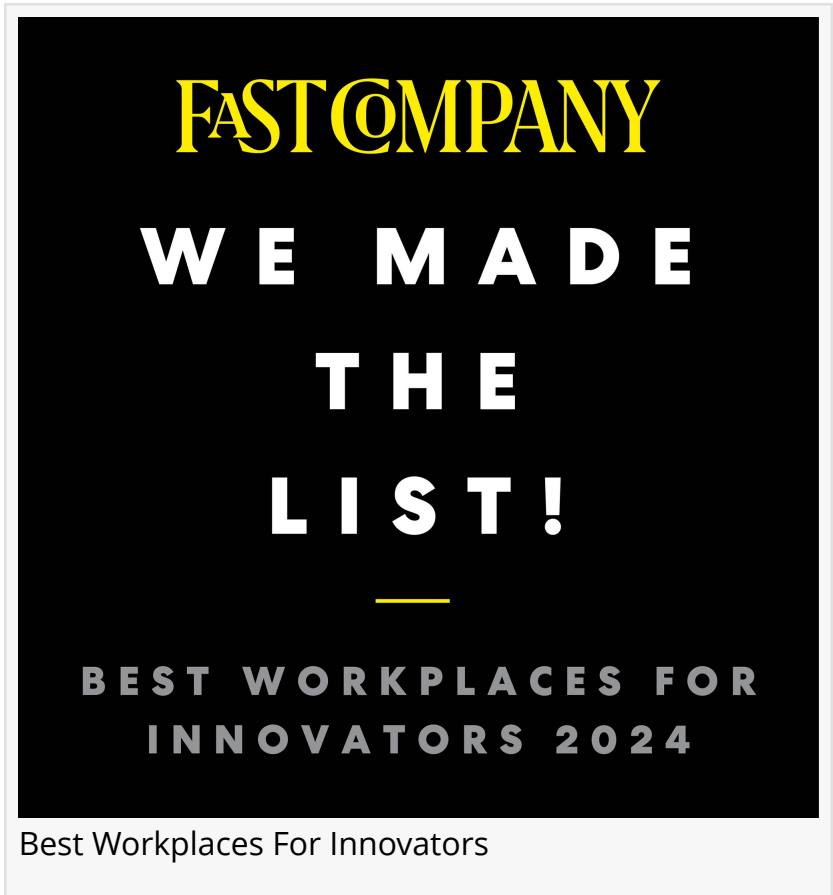

This prestigious award honors organizations with a remarkable commitment to fostering innovation at all levels.

Fast Company's Best Workplaces for Innovators award highlights organizations across diverse industries who prioritize fostering creativity and groundbreaking ideas. This year's list includes companies like Adobe, Canva, Roblox, and Walmart, a true testament to the importance of innovation across sectors.

100 Expanding Mental Health Reach

MIYO Health's dedication to transforming student well-being through cutting-edge technology and a deep understanding of evolving school needs has earned it this prestigious recognition. The company empowers schools with a comprehensive platform designed to address student mental health concerns.

This platform equips educators with efficient screening tools, evidence-based resources, and valuable data to proactively identify and support students who might need help.

In addition to its support of school districts, MIYO Health has partnered with the state of Colorado to develop the I-Matter program. I-Matter is a mental health program that provides free, confidential counseling and support services to students across the state. The program has been in operation since 2018 and has served over 12,500 students. In May 2024, Colorado made I-Matter permanent, ensuring continued access to mental health services for students.

2024 A Commitment to Innovation

Fostering a culture of innovation is central to MIYO Health's mission. The company believes that by empowering its team members to develop creative solutions, it can revolutionize the way schools and mental health organizations prioritize student well-being. This commitment to innovation extends beyond the company's platform. MIYO Health is actively seeking partnerships with provider agencies and other mental health organizations to create a collaborative ecosystem dedicated to improving mental health outcomes.

By continuously pushing the boundaries of technology and mental health care, we are able to create innovative solutions that address the evolving needs of individuals and organizations.”

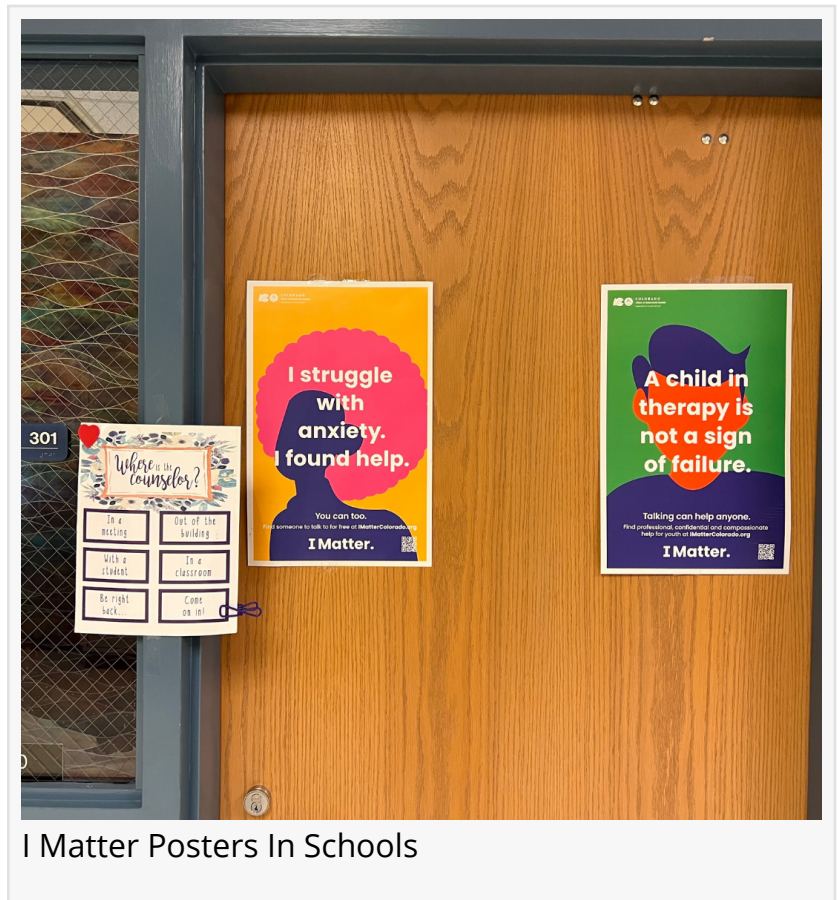

Kishore Gangwani, CEO MIYO Health

By leveraging its innovative platform and expertise, MIYO Health aims to empower these organizations to deliver effective and accessible mental health services.

"Innovation is the cornerstone of our mission at MIYO Health," says Kishore, CEO of MIYO Health. "By continuously pushing the boundaries of technology and mental health care, we are able to create innovative solutions that address the evolving needs of individuals and organizations. Our inclusion on the Fast Company list of Best Workplaces for Innovators is a testament to our team's dedication to innovation and our commitment to making a positive impact on mental health outcomes."
