About Phillip:

Phillip Brandon is a multifaceted singer-songwriter and overall dynamic performer. Native of Inglewood, CA and a graduate of Morehouse College (Atlanta, GA) - Brandon's musical prowess is evident in his previous album, "The Story Begins," which featured his leading single "Come On," spending 12 consecutive weeks on the Billboard Top 20 Chart for Smooth Jazz! For over a decade, Brandon has been the voice of the "Narrator" captivating sold out arenas across the US with the multi platinum rock group Trans-Siberian Orchestra. His rich and diverse career also includes the Broadway National Tour of Oprah Winfrey's "The Color Purple," showcasing his ability to command the stage with his compelling presence.

His musical talent is matched by his acting skills, having appeared in hit TV shows like: S.W.A.T, Station 19, The Flight Attendant, Henry Danger and Grace & Frankie. You may also have seen his face promoting product awareness for brands such as: Chase (opposite - Kevin Hart), Lifetime/Dish (opposite - Jane Seymour), Walmart (opposite - Fred Armisen) & Finish Line (opposite - 2 Chainz).
