Beth Fischer grew up a typical girl, with the dream of someday getting married and having a healthy, beautiful family of her own. She imagined herself married to a man who would be her best friend, partner, and support system, until death they parted. And in 2001 that dream came true! She married her prince, and they went on to have two beautiful daughters! But 17 years later her dream was shattered, and her nightmare began with the disclosure of her husband's many infidelities. Betrayal depression kicked in and there were days she simply didn't think she could go on. After almost three years of living in her own hell, she finally woke up, took control of her life, and embarked on the most incredible healing journey. And so did her husband. Today, Beth is living out her childhood dream with her husband, for the very first time.
