With a variety of RV sites, glamping, camping, and cabin accommodations, the newly renovated property offers modern travelers an updated and elevated camping experience that includes stylish facilities, pet-friendly and tech-forward features, and an abundance of on-site adventuring activities.

“

At Roam America we are making outdoor adventuring accessible for all types of travelers, empowering them to explore and experience the beauty of nature in their own unique way.”

Scott McGee, Vice President of Roam America.

Roam Echo Island is located minutes from the northeastern Utah’s outdoor recreation hub of Echo Reservoir and Echo State Park. Situated within 40 acres of lush, tree-lined meadows, and nestled against the winding Weber River, the park features two cabins, 9 glamping tents, eight tent sites, and 157 paved RV site options:

premium, back-in and pull-through, all full hook up with 30/50 amp. The cabins are one-bedroom, one-bath with a kitchenette, while the glamping tents feature a queen-size bed, a desk and an inviting campfire ring.

Dedicated to a better camping experience for campers and RVers, Roam has designed their Echo Island property with fun in mind for the entire family. Top of the list is “Roam Above” the park’s all ages aerial treetop ropes experience and zipline course that snakes throughout the property and offers a bird’s-eye view of the campground and surrounding countryside. Youngsters are challenged to test their agility skills on the “Adventure Course” and the 1500 square foot “Hawk’s Nest Trampoline Net," positioned 30 feet in the air.

Two combination pickleball/basketball courts encourage friendly competition, and the two resort-style swimming pools invite guests to cool off. On-site trout fishing is plentiful either from the park's well-stocked pond or the Weber River. The river also lends itself perfectly to a lazy afternoon of tubing or stand-up paddleboarding.

For those looking for a more leisurely experience, guests can follow hiking trails from the property to panoramic views of the valley, unwind in the streamside sauna or one of two hot tubs, and take in an outdoor movie screening in the park's amphitheater.

For everyone's comfort and convenience, the resort provides newly renovated and spacious bathhouses and laundry facilities, pet-friendly amenities such as premium RV sites with fenced patios, and fast, reliable WiFi throughout the property.
